to him. When Shilivan was taken into the Tennessee's lifeboat he was unconscious, but revived after taking ammonta and brandy.

'T had drawn two weeks' salary and was going on my vacation after spending Bunday at home with my parents.' Bullivan told Capt. Enos. 'I bought my ticket for Pall River, but could not get a stateroom. I met a young women an and was having a good time on deck when I got into an argument with some men. We had dinner and I had been drinking.'

Two sio bills were found in Sullivan's socks after he had been rescued. In his pocket he had his baggage check and 3 cents in chanse. He said he thought he had more money than that, although he had been spending quite freely.

Bullivan was rescued two miles west of Confield lightship, off Saybrook, Conn. Capt. Sullivan said he had been in the water forty minutes and would in the loster. Baltimore, Md.
